Non-discrimination and equal employment opportunity are the policy of the Miami Township Police Department. The department shall provide equal terms and conditions of employment regardless of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, veteran status, military status or disability.

All Miami Township employment requirements are related to the skills that are necessary to be a successful employee.

31.4.1 Selection Process Described

A job related, useful and nondiscriminatory selection process is dependent upon a number of professionally and legally accepted administrative practices and procedures, that include informing candidates, full-time and/or part-time, of all parts of the selection process at the time of formal application; maintaining written procedures governing lateral entry and reapplication of unsuccessful candidates; and ensuring timely notification of candidates about their status at all critical points in the process. These procedures and practices significantly contribute to a more efficient, effective and fair selection process; that will result in the appointment of individuals who possess the skills, knowledge and abilities necessary for the Miami Township Police Department to provide effective services in the fulfillment of its stated mission.

Miami Township posts the selection process in its entirety on the Miami Township Police web page at www.miamitwpoh.gov. Applicants are notified at the time of the preliminary application of their access to this directive in its entirety.

When the Miami Township Police Department is actively engaged in an entry-level selection process the Department shall accept a pre-application contact form and resume from potential candidates during an established application period.

Pre-application contact forms and resumes submitted after the conclusion of the last process and until the established application period are maintained on file by the Administrative Assistant. Upon notification that an active entry-level selection process is authorized, the Administrative Assistant shall include these previously submitted pre-application contact forms and resumes to the Chief of Police for review along the forms submitted during the established application period.

These skills are necessary to identify those candidates who can successfully complete training and perform their job effectively. Each applicant shall be required to achieve a score of no less than eighty (80% of a possible 100%) in order to be considered to have passed the written examination phase of the testing procedure.

The written examination instrument must have validity, utility and minimum adverse impact. It shall be developed and furnished by a qualified private sector organization or vendor. Documents attesting to its validity, utility and minimum adverse impact must be filed by the provider of the testing material with the Administrative Assistant.

Each applicant will be required to display his or her valid operator’s license, displaying his or her photograph in order to obtain admission to the written testing procedure. Physical Fitness Assessment (Police Officer Applicants Only)

The physical assessment is used to identify the sworn police officer applicants’ capacity to successfully perform the physical requirements of a police officer. Qualifying applicants shall be administered a series of physical tests. A candidate must successfully pass each phase of the physical tests to pass the physical assessment.

Miami Township utilizes the OPOTC Basic Training Physical Assessment standards for Pushups and Sit ups and a fitness testing/job simulated obstacle course. The obstacle course is pass/fail and consists of a 130-yard run with specific obstacles and must be successfully completed in less than 58 seconds.

Applicants are notified at the conclusion of each segment of the physical fitness assessment if they have passed or failed by the agency member conducting the testing.

Interview and Evaluation Process

An Interview & Evaluation Process is a structured process that has two primary purposes.

First, it gives the interviewers the opportunity to determine how an applicant will handle given situations, sometimes involving a variety of options, but always requiring good judgment.

Second and equally important, this phase of the selection process is accomplished at minimum cost to the Department, a major consideration in determining the sequence in the series of selection events.

The Police Department may utilize any non-probationary personnel it deems appropriate for the interview and evaluation process. This phase of the selection process is scored. In order to reduce the subjectivity of the interview and evaluation process and to promote consistent scoring between interviewers, questions will be pre-determined for which a range of responses can be identified. This provides each interviewer with a guideline for rating each applicant's responses, thus increasing the objectivity of the interviews.

Additional questions may be asked, which may be used to gain further insight into the applicant's interests and points of view, or to assist in clarification of an applicant's answer.

The Chief of Police shall advise the Administrative Assistant if the candidate will:

- Proceed to the Background Investigation;
- Be placed in a pending status; or,
- Be removed from the selection process.

The Administrative Assistant shall notify each candidate of their status.

Personal History Questionnaire (PHQ) (Formal Application)

Candidates chosen to proceed to the formal application stage shall receive and complete the personal history questionnaire in the time frame established via written notice by the Administrative Assistant. The Chief of Police shall review all PHQ's and notify the Administrative Assistant if the applicant will continue in the process. The Administrative Assistant will notify all formal applicants of their status.

Background Investigation

The background investigation will entail the applicant completing the Personal History Questionnaire (PHQ). The PHQ is a document which requires the applicant to answer in detail questions relating to relatives, references and acquaintances; education; residence history; experience and employment; military service; financial history; legal history; motor vehicle operation and law enforcement information.

The background investigator will use the PHQ to verify the applicants' veracity and background through interviews with the applicant, his or her family, friends, employers, teachers, neighbors, associates and other persons who may have information bearing on the applicant's character and reputation. The investigator will, verify the information given by, and the qualifying credentials of the applicant, conduct an in-depth review for and of any criminal record, and will verify and interview a minimum of three of the applicants' listed personal references.

Thus, the background investigation's purpose is to ensure that each applicant is morally, socially and financially stable. It is essential to know if the candidate has a background that could bring discredit to the Department or the applicant after their appointment or that might otherwise compromise their ability to perform police duties.

The applicant will also be required to sign an "Authority to Release Information" which gives the background investigator the legal authority to obtain needed information.

The Department will only use personnel who have successfully completed a course of instruction in conducting background investigations to investigate and gather information on applicants during the background investigation process.

The background investigation shall be reviewed by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police shall advise the Administrative Assistant if the candidate will:

- Proceed to the Polygraph Examination, or;
- Be placed in a pending status, or;
- Be removed from the selection process.

The Administrative Assistant shall notify each candidate of their status.

Polygraph Examination

The polygraph is conducted after the Background Investigation. The number of persons sent to the polygraph shall be determined by the Department based on the total number of entry level positions to be filled at the time of the testing.

The polygraph examination is an investigative tool designed to ensure an applicant for appointment does not have a hidden background that would normally eliminate the candidate from further consideration. The polygraph examination will be administered to an applicant who is being considered for appointment. The candidate must successfully pass the polygraph to continue in the selection process.

Polygraph examinations for applicants to the Department will be conducted only by persons trained in polygraph procedures and who possess credentials in the use and interpretation of these investigative tools. The credentials of the polygraph examiner(s) are to be on file with the Administrative Assistant.

The polygraph examination is never used by the Department as a single or sole determinant of employment status. Rather, polygraph examinations and interpretations are an investigative aid to be considered with other information, including pretest, test or post-test interviews, psychological examinations and information gathered from the background investigation.

Candidates are provided a list of areas from which polygraph questions will be drawn. The list is given at the time of their preliminary application and again at the time the Personal History Questionnaire (PHQ) is completed.

The following is a list of possible areas from which the polygraph questions will be drawn:

- Personal Identity
- Employment History
- Military Service
- Financial History
- Legal History/Arrest Records
- Motor Vehicle Operation
- Law Enforcement Information
- Responses Given on the PHQ

The polygraph examination report shall be reviewed by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police shall advise the Administrative Assistant if the candidate will:

- Receive a Conditional Offer of Employment, or;
- Be removed from the selection process.

The Administrative Assistant shall notify each candidate of their status.

Conditional Offer of Employment

After successful completion of the aforementioned selection process steps, the department may make a conditional offer of employment. The number of applicants that will receive a conditional offer of employment shall be no more than the number of entry level vacancies established by the Miami Township Police Department to be filled at the time such offers are made.

The conditional offer of employment extended to an applicant shall stipulate that the applicant must successfully complete the remaining selection process steps in the employment process in order to be appointed as a probationary employee.

Psychological Examination (Police Officer Applicants Only)

A psychological examination of highly reliable and time-proven psychological tests is administered to help determine the emotional stability and psychological fitness of an applicant. The applicant must successfully pass this phase to continue in the testing procedure.

Such tests are needed to identify those applicants who might not be able to carry out their responsibilities or endure the stress of the working conditions.

Only qualified professionals will be used to administer the psychological examination and assess emotional stability and psychological fitness.

The psychological examination report shall be reviewed by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police shall advise the Administrative Assistant if the candidate will:

- Proceed to the Medical Examination, or;
- Be removed from the selection process.

The Administrative Assistant shall notify each candidate of their status.

Medical Examination

The medical examination is done to assess the applicant's physical status as to his/her ability to safely perform specific types of work without risk to self, to others, or to the department. The medical examination will be conducted by a licensed health care professional. The applicant must successfully pass this phase to continue in the testing procedure. Passing criteria is based on medical, laboratory and ancillary testing. Applicants must receive the Physician's opinion that he/she has no expected limitations based on job description.

The medical examination shall include the following:

- Family and Personal Health History
- EKG
- Blood Pressure Screening (Hypertension)
- Hyperlipidemia

- Cholesterol (HDL/LDL)
- Triglycerides
- Glucose
- Heart Rate
- Chest X-ray
- Obesity-Body Fat Count
- Hearing and Vision Test
- Drug Screen

The medical examination report shall be reviewed by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police shall advise the Administrative Assistant one of the following:

- The Chief of Police will recommend probationary employment be approved by the Board of Trustees, or;
- The candidate is removed from the selection process.

The Administrative Assistant shall notify each candidate of their status.

31.4.2 Job Relatedness

All elements of the selection process use only those rating criteria or minimum qualifications that are job related. These criteria and qualifications are based upon job task analysis, Federal & State qualifications (if applicable) and requirements announced in the position vacancy and this directive.

31.4.3 Uniform Administration

All elements of the selection process are documented, administered, scored and evaluated in a uniform and fair manner.

31.4.4 Candidate Information

At the time of accepting the Pre-Application Contact Form & Resume applicants will receive or have access to this directive in its entirety, which contains all elements of the selection process.

Miami Township anticipates the completion of the entry level selection process to be completed within 120 days. The results of a selection process are valid until notification is given otherwise by the Chief of Police.

An applicant who is dismissed anytime during the selection process may reapply for testing and evaluation for an entry level position at any future time the department is engaged in a selection process. Such application shall be subject to the qualifications and criteria established for that selection process.

31.4.5 Notification of Ineligibility

Should an applicant fail to successfully complete a section of the testing procedure, the applicant shall be notified in writing of such failure. Such notification shall be sent within thirty days of the date the department became aware of the applicant's failure to successfully complete a section of the selection process.

Since it is the intent of the Miami Township Police Department to acquire the best individuals possible for employment, one important aspect of evaluation is reviewing the applicant's past behavior, both personal and work related. Research supports the position that a reasonably reliable predictor of future behavior is past behavior. It is believed that if a person has habitually demonstrated a pattern of unacceptable behavior in the past, it is reasonable to believe that those same patterns could be considered as a predictor of future behavior. Following are the primary criteria set forth for determining the suitability of a candidate, with the first four listed being the most discretionary.

- Drug Usage within the Past Two Years (All Applicants) or Drug Usage Anytime While Employed as a Police Officer - Given the climate and attitudes of today's society, and considering the availability of illegal drugs as well as peer pressure, the Police Department believes that it would be nearly impossible to attempt to staff any department with the expectation that in an applicant's lifetime he/she would not have ever experimented with drugs in some fashion. To impose a standard that would require that a person have had absolutely no drug involvement in any type in his/her life is unrealistic. Therefore, each candidate will be evaluated according to the amount and frequency of the scheduled drug used, cultivated, sold, purchased or gifted, while taking into consideration the dates of each incident. Note: for the purposes of this standard, the 'purchase' of marijuana or other illegal drugs includes those purchases made by pooling of resources or money by the applicant and others for illegal substances for their own use.
- Work History - A person who clearly demonstrated a poor work ethic, including excessive absenteeism, habitual tardiness, absences without leave, the inability to perform the simple tasks and duties of a job, or overall unreliability, would not be considered a good candidate for the Miami Township Police Department.
- History of Traffic Violations (Sworn Personnel) - A person who has frequently been charged with traffic violations (accidents, moving violations, DUI, revocation of driver's license, etc.) would clearly pose the potential for liability to the Township, as well as a personal threat to its citizens.
- Credit History - Utilizing the hypothesis that past behavior is a predictor of future behavior, and realizing that a police employee is viewed by the citizenry as being held to higher standards, the Department believes that it is not reasonable to place an applicant with a recent history of difficulty in maintaining sound financial responsibility into a position with such high exposure to those who would compromise it. Acceptable candidates will have demonstrated a good credit record for the past four to five years. In addition, the candidate's total experience may be evaluated regarding acceptability.
- Inability to Meet Medical Requirements - Each applicant must be in good health, free of communicable and cardiovascular disease, and fit to perform the tasks required of their jobs. This standard is liberal and requires a judgment of a licensed physician. Temporary illness and impairments may be considered in the overall evaluation of the candidates.

- Dishonesty and/or Intentional Omissions Made during the Selection Process will result in Ineligibility and Dismissal. The Ohio Revised Code provides penalties for making false statements of a material fact or for practicing fraud or deception in obtaining or attempting to obtain employment. Such penalties include rejection for appointment, discharge after appointment and/or prosecution under Ohio Revised Code Section 2921.13.
- Any Other Pertinent Information gathered during the background investigation that may render a candidate unsuitable for duty in the Police Department is considered.
- Failure to Successfully Complete any phase of the testing procedure. By failing to: obtain a passing score, obtain an acceptable and/or required level of performance or failure to attend any phase of the testing procedure.
- Waivers, Withdrawal from Consideration or Declination of Appointment submitted orally or in writing, is undisputed cause for the removal of applicants from the selection process.

31.4.6 Records

All records of applicants not appointed to probationary status shall be maintained to ensure continuing research, independent evaluation and defense against lawsuits. The Chief of Police shall determine requirements, consistent with Department procedures and applicable laws, for maintaining identifying information, such as names and addresses. Such requirements shall comply with all federal, state and local requirements for the privacy, security and freedom of information of all applicant records and data. The records shall be maintained in a secure file in the office of the Accreditation Manager or in the Township Personnel Management office pursuant to the Schedule of Records Retention & Disposition.

The Accreditation Manager shall maintain all selection materials in a secure file in his/her office or in a secure storage room. It shall be the policy of the Miami Township Police Department, that whenever the disposal of selection material is authorized, the material shall be shredded.

The results of background investigations conducted on applicants shall be filed in accordance with the following procedure:

- The applicant is appointed to the position of probationary employee (hired); the results of the background investigation shall be placed in the employees personnel file.

- The applicant fails to receive an appointment as a probationary employee (not hired); the results of the background investigation shall be securely stored by the Township Personnel Management office pursuant to the Schedule of Records Retention & Disposition.

The results of the medical and psychological examinations conducted on applicants shall be filed in accordance with the following procedure:

- The applicant is appointed to the position of probationary employee (hired); the results of the medical & psychological examinations shall be placed in the employees personnel file.
- The applicant fails to receive an appointment as a probationary employee (not hired); the results of the medical & psychological examinations shall be stored in a secured area of the Township Personnel Management office pursuant to the Schedule of Records Retention & Disposition.

31.4.7 Selection Criteria

The selection criteria for all sworn positions are identical as it pertains to skill, knowledge and ability; and are not dependent upon full-time status. Experience, physical condition, and other job-related selection criteria applicable to full-time sworn officers apply equally to sworn officers who are not full-time.

31.4.8 Sworn Appointment Requirements

Any sworn position must possess a valid, current Peace Officers certification issued by the Ohio Peace Officers Training Council at the time of the conditional offer of employment.
